UPPER SADDLE RIVER HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC. BYLAWS

Article I

NAME

The name of the Society shall be the Upper Saddle River Historical Society, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "the Society").

Article II

PURPOSE

To collect, preserve and disseminate the history of the Upper Saddle River area. To administer the Hopper-Goetschius House Museum, outbuildings, and grounds.

Collections include taped interviews, printed matter, digital records, memorabilia, furnishings, cooking items, farm tools and equipment, vehicles and other materials related to local history.

Preservation includes maintaining all buildings, furnishings, tools and equipment in, as nearly as possible, their original condition, cataloging and filing all tapes, photographs, printed and other media so they can be readily retrieved, and maintaining inventories of all items in the archives and house and farm collections.

Dissemination includes publishing a newsletter periodically throughout the year, hosting a website, holding tours and demonstrations at the museum, holding classes related to historical arts and crafts, running program meetings at which topics of historical significance are presented and discussed, and presenting other events and activities that enhance people's awareness of the heritage of the area.

Administering the museum includes maintaining and presenting furnishings and displays in the house, barn and other out-buildings to enable visitors to get a sense of history, and learn about life in years gone by.

Article V

OFFICERS AND TRUSTEES

Section 1. Board of Trustees

The business of the Society shall be conducted by the Board of Trustees, hereafter referred to as the Board, which shall be composed of

- a) The Officers
- b) Seven or more Trustees who shall be elected for three-year terms.
- c) Trustees-in-Absentia. Trustees who have difficulty attending Board meetings (because of living a distance from USR, lack of transportation etc.), may, at the discretion of the Board, be classified as "Trustee-in-Absentia." Trustees in this category have the privilege of voting at any meeting they can attend.

Section 2. Student Trustees

In order to encourage the participation of youth in the activities of the Society, and to train future leaders in the mechanics of Society governance, the Board may appoint High School students as Student Trustees. These Trustees-in-training, although not full members of the Board, shall be entitled to attend and participate in Board Meetings and events, and once appointed, shall serve until graduation.

Section 3. Officers

Officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice Presidents (Including Planning and Organization, Curator, Events, and Membership), Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary. Each Officer is elected for a term of two years beginning January 1st. Upon leaving office, an Officer shall be automatically appointed to serve a three-year term as a Trustee.

With a 2/3 majority vote of The Board of Trustees, Officer positions may be added or removed as deemed necessary.

Section 4. Executive Committee

The Officers of the Society shall form the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall make decisions in an emergency situation when immediate action is required before the next scheduled Board meeting. The Board shall be informed of such decisions at the next Board meeting.

Section 5. Duties of the Officers

- a) The President shall supervise all activities of the Society within the scope of these Bylaws. The President shall appoint committee members and chairs. The President is member of all committees. He/she shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Trustees, and shall write an annual report on the status of the Society for the website or the first newsletter of the new year. The President shall have signature authority for all Society funds in case of the absence of the CFO.
- b) The Vice President of Planning and Organization shall develop and maintain organization structure and strategic planning for the Board, and shall assume the duties of the President in the event of the absence, incapacity or resignation of the President.
- c) The CFO shall safeguard Society funds and maintain adequate financial records. The CFO shall deposit all moneys received with a reliable banking company and/or in a conservative investment in the name of the Society in accordance with the Society's Investment Policy Statement. Moneys shall be paid out by numbered checks signed by the CFO and another Officer, or by direct electronic payment of bills where appropriate. The CFO will render a report of the Society's finances at each meeting of the Board of Trustees and at year end. The CFO shall also manage corporate fund raising and shall invest funds of Society according to the direction of the Finance and Endowment Fund Committee. Upon expiration of his/her term of office, all funds, financial records and membership records of the Society shall be turned over to the successor CFO, or the President.
- d) The Curator is a Vice President who shall direct Society activities relating to collection, preservation and dissemination of the history of the local area. This includes research, archives, buildings, newsletters and publicity. The Curator shall be responsible for preservation and interpretation of the Museum.
- d) The Vice President of Events shall plan, schedule and staff events each year.
- e) The Vice President of Membership shall promote membership and maintain up-to-date membership records.
- f) The Recording Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Society and of the Board of Trustees, and present copies of minutes for approval at subsequent meetings.
- h) The Corresponding Secretary shall answer pertinent correspondence and write thank you notes to anyone making a donation of money or materials to the Society over and above the annual dues. In addition, the Corresponding Secretary will arrange for meeting space for Society events held outside the Hopper-Goetschius House Museum

Section 6. Vacancies

Should a vacancy in the office of President occur other than by expiration of term of office, the Officers and Trustees shall proceed as set forth in Section 5 b.

Should a vacancy in the office of CFO occur other than by expiration of term of office, the President shall appoint another person, with approval by majority vote of the Board of Trustees, to assume duties of the CFO on an interim basis for the balance of the unexpired term of office.

In the event of the resignation or incapacity of any Officer except the President or CFO, or any Trustee, the vacancy shall be filled, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, by a majority vote, for the unexpired term of office.

Section 7. Obligations of Officers and Trustees

Each Officer and Trustee shall agree, prior to election to the Board, to:

Be a paid-up member of the Society.

Attend Board meetings. The Board of Trustees meets at least four times a year and occasionally has special meetings. Trustees are expected to attend these meetings, both to contribute their expertise and to keep up to date on Society events.

If a Trustee is unable to attend a meeting, he/she shall notify the Recording Secretary at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

If a Trustee misses 3 or more meetings in a calendar year, that Trustee will be contacted by the President to determine if the Trustee should remain on the Board.

Participate in Society events. The Society holds a number of events throughout the year at which volunteer help is needed to guide, serve refreshments, hold demonstrations, direct parking, etc. Trustees are expected to volunteer their time in helping with these events.

Participate on at least one Board Committee, and actively support the work of that Committee.

Carry out assigned tasks between Board meetings.

Be familiar with these Bylaws and use them as a guide to performing Society work.

A Conflict of Interest shall occur anytime a decision is to be made about a Trustee, a member of the Trustee's immediate family, or any entity that the Trustee has a 10% or greater interest in, or is an officer, or serves on the governing board thereof. In cases of Conflict of Interest, a Trustee shall recuse herself or himself from discussion and voting.

In the event an Officer or Trustee cannot fulfill the responsibilities outlined above to a sufficient degree, he or she should make this known to the Board, and offer to move to the Volunteer Corps (see Section 7). Everything possible will be done to accommodate the special needs and situations of individual Trustees, but the Board needs Trustees who can actively participate.

Section 8. The Volunteer Corps

This Corps shall be composed of individuals who support the work of the Society in major ways, but do not care to, or cannot, serve at the Board level. They shall participate in Society events. They may also participate in Committee work and/or special projects, and provide recommendations to the Board for improvement as they see a need.

Section 9. Quorum

At any meeting of the Board of Trustees, one half of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum. Alternately, if there is majority of the Executive Board present, one-third of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum. In all cases, Trustees-in-Absentia shall not count toward either a quorum or the total number of Trustees.

Section 10. Nominations and Election

- a) Not less than three months prior to year-end, the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall develop lists of potential candidates for Officers and Trustees and submit those lists to the Board for approval. Approval will be by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees at a regular Board meeting.
- b) The slate of Officers and Trustees shall be published on the website no later than October 31st, along with a request for additional nominations. Additional Nomination(s) may be made no later than November 15th by submitting a petition found on the Historical Society website online, for each nominee. Each petition must be signed by at least five paid up members of the Society and submitted by mail to the address on the form. Should nomination(s) be made in this manner, the name(s) will be published on the website along with the slate approved by the Board of Trustees no later than December 1st. Paid up members will vote using a ballot available on The Historical Society website online. Ballots are to be mailed to the address on the ballot, and postmarked by December 15th. Voting closes on December 15th. If no new nominations are received by the end of the year, the slate will automatically be elected effective January 1st of the following year.
- c) There is no limit on the number of consecutive terms served by an Officer or Trustee.
- d) Officers and Trustees shall serve until their successors are elected and take office
